Carers and staff are more than welcome to attend. It will be good for you as there will be lots of relevant information. Doing the valuable job you are doing means that you are in the position to pass these messages across and support adults in the community with disabilities if they were to become a victim. We are hoping it will be fun and informative day.

Join us on Wednesday 29th September 2010 from 11am- 3pm at Fareham Day Services, Horticultural unit, Wynton way, Fareham, Hampshire PO15 6NR. Telephone: 01329 842046.
